

ANNOUNCEMENT: Lee Abrams joins Higgins & Welch Real Estate, Inc.

Higgins & Welch Real Estate, Inc is pleased to announce that Lee Abrams has joined the team as a licensed real estate salesperson and REO Specialist in its Distressed Asset Division.

Mr. Abrams is a U.S. Naval Veteran and seasoned 20 year real estate professional having achieved successes including designation as a “Top Producer/Mega Agent” and 17 consecutive years performing as a multi-million dollar producer. He is a family man who finds purpose and joy in spending time with his wife, four children and first Grandson.

With long term REO clients ranging from national REO servicers to Hedge Funds, Mr. Abrams, commented, “The concept of offering one integrated servicing package under one roof - that combines and streamlines the valuation, property management and the sale of the asset (or lien) - is a tremendous value and huge win for my clients. And once I spent time with the team at Higgins & Welch, it was a clear choice to grow with them.”

Lee is a welcome addition to Higgins & Welch Real Estate, Inc. whose diverse range of real estate services spans residential and commercial sales, appraisals, property management, development, expert witness testimony & consulting, and title & settlement services.

Broker of Record, Edward A. Welch, III, responded, “We are seeing an uptick in REO activity in our Southeastern section of PA and all the signs are pointing to a corrective period in the market. We had already started to shift some focus to the Distressed Asset Market and having Lee joins us is exciting and perfect timing.”

As a member of Higgins & Welch Real Estate, Inc. Lee Abrams has joined a forward-minded, regional brokerage whose foundations date back to 1976 and competency includes the nine county Philadelphia Metropolitan Area

We, at Higgins & Welch Real Estate, Inc. along with Lee Abrams welcome the opportunity to provide you with superior solutions and services.
